

QUALITY, ENVIRONMENTAL, OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY

In TECHNICAL MARITIME BUREAU (TMB) we adopted an Integrated Quality, Environmental Protection and Occupational Safety and Health Management System, accordance with ISO 9001, ISO 14001 and ISO 45001, as a means to ensuring an economic results in a sustainable way.

In TMB we are specialists in naval and industrial repair and maintenance, offering a wide range of services. Our principal goal is to satisfy our clients with customized solutions, knowing how to identify the needs and proposing individualized solutions.

In TMB we offer added value in the execution of our projects through the development support Engineering, design and construction management activities, committing ourselves at all times with the key factors for projects management: quality in execution, deadline compliance and cost optimization.

In TMB we ensure the maximum guarantees of health and safety for our workers, customer and suppliers, removing the dangers and reducing all possible risks, as well as ensuring the environmental respect of our environment.

In TMB the prevention of occupational and environmental risks is integrated into the general management system of the company, both in the whole of its activity and in all its hierarchical levels. All this is reflected in our occupational risk prevention plan and environmental control protocols.

In TMB we periodically define and review indicators, objectives and goals, established in compliance with this policy, within the process of continuous improvement of our company, consulting and encouraging the participation of our staff and other parties involved in our improvement process.

In TMB we guarantee that the technical means for the provision of its service are adequate, as well as the excellent training of the company's personnel.

In TMB we comply with all legal and regulatory requirement in environmental matters, prevention and those that affect the provision of our services, as well respect other commitments that the organization has signed or have been required by our customer and / or interest parties

In TMB we constantly work to provide safe and healthy working conditions for the prevention of injuries and deterioration of the health of our workers, as well as consult them and encourage their participation in all matters related to the prevention of occupational hazards that are relevant.

CEO
July 2019